

PRESBYWEB
News that has an impact on ministry
<http://www.presbyweb.com>

Dear Rev Curtis,

Presbyweb has posted a resource that might be useful to you:
We have put all the responses to the P.U.P. report that have been published over the months, together on one page. We believe we have gotten them all, official and unofficial, from left to right!

You might agree with us that going over this page is the fastest and easiest way to become well-informed on this subject. As always, we link to “the horse’s mouth”!

To all newcomers we offer a free trial subscription for a whole month, without any obligation. Only a simple registration is required.

Just go to <http://www.presbyweb.com> and you can find the link to the PUP page (“The PUP report controversy”) in the left hand column.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Hans Cornelder, editor
616 North 11th St
Oskaloosa, Iowa 52577

P.S. Presbyweb is an independent news publication, and is published every day except Sundays. It is in its eighth year of service.
