9/11 WHAT A DIFFERENCE A DAY MAKES

Moore, James W.			Dimensions for Living, 2002		BOOK
-----------------	--	--	-----------------------------	--	------

Words of encouragement and inspiration in response to the events of September 11, 2001.

BASIC TYPES OF PASTORAL CARE & COUNSELING:

RESOURCES FOR THE MINISTRY OF HEALING AND GROWTH

Clinebell, Howard			Abingdon Press		BOOK
-------------------	--	--	----------------	--	------

This revised and enlarged edition of the author's previous book reflects changes that have occurred in the field and presents a more holistic and explicitly liberation-growth paradigm. Dr. Clinebell probes the effects brought about by the emergence of lay caring groups, environmental concerns, liberation theology, the feminist movement, transactional analysis, reality therapy, and crisis intervention.

BECOMING A HEALTHIER PASTOR

FAMILY SYSTEMS THEORY AND THE PASTOR'S OWN FAMILY

Richardson, Ronald W.			Augsburg Fortress, 2005		BOOK
-----------------------	--	--	-------------------------	--	------

Pastors and church leaders are struggling with the demands of their vocation in a changing society. The author presents family systems theory work - in very understandable language - as a tool to improve emotional and social health. Readers will understand themselves and their relationships better and learn to manage relationships in a more healthy and effective way.

BURDEN OF CHRISTMAS

Riccardi, Constantine Vincent			Against the World Productions, 1965		VIDEO
-------------------------------	--	--	-------------------------------------	--	-------

A reenactment of persons involved in a care facility for persons affected by suicide and suicide attempts. Special focus on feelings of depression and suicide some persons feel around the holidays.

BURNOUT

Pines, Ayala, et al			The Free Press		BOOK
---------------------	--	--	----------------	--	------

From tedium to personal growth. Discusses the phenomenon of burnout & its ramifications, & offers coping strategies to combat burnout/teedium in professional, family, & interpersonal life. Enhanced by authors' own case studies of nearly 4000 victims and over 100 burnout workshops conducted all over the country & abroad, this study shows you how to reduce stress-causing situations, & make your goals easier to achieve.

CONFLICT MEDIATION ACROSS CULTURES

PATHWAYS AND PATTERNS

Augsburger, David W.			Westminster John Knox Press, 1992		BOOK
----------------------	--	--	-----------------------------------	--	------

The author argues that though conflict is inevitable in human life, it can be quite constructive. Proposing a shift to an international approach in resolving conflict, Augsburger focuses on interpersonal and group conflicts and provides a comparison of conflict patterns within and among various cultures. An essential resource in today's global society.

COPING WITH YOUR ANGER:

A CHRISTIAN GUIDE

Andrew D. Lester			Westminster Press, 1983		BOOK
------------------	--	--	-------------------------	--	------

It is not wrong to get angry. The author shows how to understand anger so that it will be helpful not hurtful to Christian life. He looks at the biblical teaching about anger, focusing on the destructiveness and the creativity that results from appropriate anger.

COUNSELING FOR SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND ADDICTION

Van Cleave, Stephen; Walter Byrd; Kathy Revell    Word Publishing    BOOK

Resources for Christian Counseling series. The authors--two doctors and a nurse--have 40 years of cumulative experience in the evaluation and treatment of substance abuse. They know that anyone--church members included--can become addicted, often as a result of innocent choices.

COUNSELING TROUBLED OLDER ADULTS: A HANDBOOK FOR PASTORS AND RELIGIOUS CAREGIVERS

Koenig, Harold G. and Andrew J. Weaver    Abingdon Press    BOOK

The authors demystify the pastoral skills of evaluation, treatment planning, referral, and self-help with seniors. They describe many resources available and give practical guidance needed to care for the older adults in the congregation. Subjects include anxiety, depression, Alzheimer's, psychoses, substance abuse, and other older-adult disorders.

COUNTING ON KINDNESS THE DILEMMAS OF DEPENDENCY

Lustbader, Wendy    The Free Press, 1991    BOOK

Vividly illustrated with true stories and quotations from both dependents and caregivers, this book explores issues of power and dependency and shows how to regain a sense of power and purpose while dependent on others.

CRITICAL CARING: A FEMINIST MODEL FOR PASTORAL PSYCHOLOGY

DeMarinis, Valerie M.    Westminster/John Knox Press    BOOK

The author makes major theoretical and clinical contributions to pastoral care and counseling and reclaims the constructive healing role of ritual and symbols in pastoral practice. Using an exclusively feminist model, she expresses philo-sophical, theological, and clinical foundations for the practice of pastoral psychotherapy.

DEFIANT HOPE: SPIRITUALITY FOR SURVIVORS OF FAMILY ABUSE

Leehan, James    Westminster/John Knox Press    BOOK

Provides aid to all individuals trying to overcome the effects of abusive behavior--behavior that is often supported by religion and which generates spiritual conflicts for survivors. Also examines Jewish and Christian religious resources that can promote healing and spiritual growth.

DRIVEN BY HOPE

Dittes, James E.    Westminster/John Knox Press    BOOK

This profoundly male-affirming book breaks fresh ground with its alternatives to conventional wisdom about men. Behind men's sometimes destructive behaviors, the author finds deep spiritual sorrow and enormous spiritual hopefulness.

FROM VICTIM TO VICTORY: PRESCRIPTIONS FROM A CHILD ABUSE SURVIVOR

Quinn, Phil E.    Abingdon Press    BOOK

Includes practical suggestions from an abuse survivor and focuses specifically on issues of healing and recovery as well as on the prevention of child abuse.

GENERATION TO GENERATION: FAMILY PROCESS IN CHURCH AND SYNAGOGUE

Friedman, Edwin, H.    The Guilford Press    BOOK

The author presents systems thinking across a broad range of human experience: family life, work life, religious life. Useful for helping to change an individual by coaching him to deal differently with spouse or extended family. Cases are informative illustrations & entertaining tales of classical marital dilemmas and troubles with children.
