ADULT BIBLE STUDIES

CURRICULUM

This quarterly study (thirteen lessons) presents stimulating lessons that explore the biblical message and how to apply it to daily life. Individuals and classes studying from this series will use the International Lessons, also called the Uniform Series. Adults move from a focus on the Word to reflection on personal, family, church, and community concerns.

BEING REFORMED: FAITH SEEKING UNDERSTANDING:

CURRICULUM

RECOGNIZING GOD'S GRACE

Weeks, Louis B.

Participant's Book. The grace of God is a very important theological theme. It is central in Reformed theology and helps us understand the nature of God as well as how we receive salvation, and how God wants us too live our lives. These lessons examine grace in the Bible, through Christian history, and Reformed understandings of grace. They then turn to graceful lives today, practicing grace, and amazing grace.

CURRICULUM

A BRIEF STATEMENT OF FAITH

Lien, Boyd

Leader's Guide. This study of A Brief Statement of Faith, added to the Presbyterian Church (USA) Book of Confessions in 1991, explores the meaning of this accessible theological document. The background and context of the Brief Statement is discussed, along with its trinitarian structure, and three main sections.

BEING REFORMED: FAITH SEEKING UNDERSTANDING:

CURRICULUM

WISDOM FROM THE EARLY CHURCH

Elia, Mary Charlotte

Leader's Guide. The early Christian church had many things to think about, debate and focus on as it grew throughout the Roman Empire. This interesting study discusses the formation of the Christian tradition on major theological issues as the church sought its Christian identity. These issues include forming the Christian Bible, decoding the story, developing a doctrine of God, confessing Christ, building the church, and shaping the Christian life. The authors provide a clear discussion of these topics and also explore the importance of the Christian tradition on these beliefs for today's church and Christian living.

BEING REFORMED: FAITH SEEKING UNDERSTANDING:

CURRICULUM

STEWARDSHIP OF CREATION

Brinton, Henry G.

Participant's Book. Christians have a responsibility to make wise use of the environment God has given us. These lessons explore biblical bases for our care of the creation along with sessions on "Being Green" at home, at church, and in the world. The sessions are full of very practical suggestions for ways individuals and churches can be better stewards of the environment, cut energy costs, and practice environmentally-conscious living in a variety of ways.
