BORN OF WATER, BORN OF SPIRIT: SUPPORTING THE MINISTRY OF THE BAPTIZED IN SMALL CONGREGATIONS

Kujawa-Holbrook, Sheryl A. & Fredrica Harris Th The Alban Institute, 2010

BOOK

The authors explore the variety of ways people in small congregations -many with no more than fifty members - are living out their baptism and the impact their actions are having on their congregations, judicatories, and communities, and the institutions that educate clergy. The authors argue that just because a community cannot pay a seminary-trained minister - a growing problem in remote regions - it does not mean that there is no ministry there. It does mean that we need to look at ministry and the church in a more expansive way.

DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

TAKING RISKS, ACTING WITH INTEGRITY

Day, Katie		The Alban Institute, 2001	BOOK
------------	--	---------------------------	------

The author, a professor of church and society at the Lutheran Theological Sminary at Philadelphia, invites congregations to begin engaging in difficult conversations, a process she hopes will become habit-forming, a new way of being communities of faith. Days talks about what makes some conversations so difficult, what dynamics are at work as we silence one another, and addresses risk involved in difficult conversations.

LINKING FAITH AND DAILY LIFE: AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR LAY PEOPLE, LEADER'S GUIDE
		Reber, Robert E.	Alban Institute, Inc.	BOOK	This program begins with a weekend retreat and continues for six consecutive weekly sessions. It focuses on the congregation or church as the community in which Christians may be educated, nurtured, and held accountable for their ministries in those places where they spend the most time and energy--the workplace, family, and community.
LISTENING TO GOD
SPIRITUAL FORMATION IN CONGREGATIONS
		Ackerman, John	Alban Institute, 2001	BOOK	The book outlines ways a congregation can promote members' spiritual growth toward a greater intimacy with God. It deals with the whole system - individuals and small groups, lay leaders and clergy, worship and education - everything congregations do to form more fully into the body of Christ. The author offers two basic, four-step models and several additional tools that can be used to create a more encompassing process.
MANTALK: RESOURCES FOR EXPLORING MALE ISSUES
		Murphey, Cecil	PCUSA	BOOK	Copy 2.
MEANDERING WAY
LEADING BY FOLLOWING THE SPIRIT
		Shockley, Gary A.	The Alban Institute, 2007	BOOK	This book is one pastor's story of his journey from a success-oriented drivenness to a significance-oriented, meandering style of life. What you will find are reflections from a fellow traveler who is now less desirous of doing something spectacular for God and is instead committed to doing something significant with God - who is discovering a more grace-filled, Spirit-led way.
MULTIGENERATIONAL CONGREGATION
MEETING THE LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE
		Rendle, Gil	The Alban Institute, 2002	BOOK	The author helps the reader understand the essential differences and unique dynamics between generations and between long-tenured members and newcomers. He provides leadership skills, strategies, stories and biblical connections needed to harness the energy of generational differences.
NETWORK: THE RIGHT PEOPLE, IN THE RIGHT PLACES, FOR THE RIGHT REASONS
		Bugbee, Bruce, Don Cousins & Bill Hybels	Zondervan Publishing House, 1994	BOOK	This Participant's Guide may be used in connection with a Video Network Kit of the same name which provides a biblical approach to help each member of a congregation discover his/her gifts to become a productive contributor of time, resources and abilities in a meaningful place of service in the local church.
PERSON WHO CHAIRS THE MEETING: GUIDANCE FOR WORKING WITH GROUPS
		Madsen, Paul O.	Judson Press	BOOK	Practical help for persons chairing a meeting. Chairperson must be aware of the group as persons and sensitive to their needs.
