AIN'T GONNA STUDY WAR NO MORE: BIBLICAL AMBIGUITY

AND THE ABOLITION OF WAR

Winn, Albert Curry

Westminster/John Knox Press, 1993

BOOK

An examination of the ambiguity that confronts us when we are faithful to Scripture both in the life and teaching of Jesus as well as in the Hebrew Scriptures. The author explores the possibility of a scriptural basis for working toward the abolition of war.

ARAB AND JEW

Shipler, David K.

Penguin Books

BOOK

A look at the origins of the prejudices that have been intensified by war, terrorism and nationalism.

BEYOND FEAR: PEACEMAKING IN THE PSALMS

Presbyterian Peacemaking Program

Congregational Ministries Div., PCUSA,

BLOOD BROTHERS: A PALESTINIAN STRUGGLES FOR RECONCILIATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Chacour, Elias

Chosen Books

BOOK

A truly unique book, this is the moving story of Elias Chacour(Shah-koor), a Palestinian man of God who has a deep love for Jews and Palestinians alike. It is the first book to blend a true-life account with historical research in telling what really happened at the birth of modern Israel.

BUILDING A CULTURE OF PEACE BEGINS WITH CHILDREN

Banta, Rosemary and Donna Miller

Presbyterian Peacemaking Program, PCUS

BOOK

Curriculum of 6 sessions for children and intergenerational groups. The focus is applying Jesus' commandment to love God with all your heart, and your neighbor as yourself in today's world. Topics include: respect for self and others, handling conflict, forgiveness, caring for the neighborhood, creative play, celebrating diversity, and standing with neighbors near and far. An introduction for leaders offers an overview of the cultural backdrop for children growing up today.

CHRISTOLOGY OF PEACE

Title 1	Title 2	Author	Publisher	Media	Summary
----------------	----------------	---------------	------------------	--------------	----------------

	Will, James E.		Westminster/John Knox Press		BOOK
	The author shows how peace with justice is evident in the life, message, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This Christology of peace not only focuses on our thermonuclear age, it also is a major contribution to interconfessional dialogue about peace--both Protestant/Catholic and Christian/Jewish.

CHURCH & SOCIETY: PEACEMAKING 2000: GROWING

TOWARD THE VISION, SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 1990 ISSUE

			PCUSA		PERIODICA
--	--	--	-------	--	-----------

Included are many of the major presentations of the conference "Peacemaking 2000: Growing Toward the Vision" held in Washington, D.C., in June 1990, to celebrate ten years of peacemaking as a mission emphasis and to prepare for the next ten years of peacemaking as a continuing goal of the Presbyterian Church. (This is Copy 2; Copy 1 is Reference Only)

CODE OF CONDUCT: A RESPONSE TO THE ISSUE OF

INTERNATIONAL ARMS SALES

CREATING THE PALESTINIAN STATE

	Segal, Jerome M.		Lawrence Hill Books		BOOK
--	------------------	--	---------------------	--	------

A strategy for peace. This book provides a strategy for resolving the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. It should be judged on a very simple basis: How does it compare to any other proposal for bringing peace and justice to the Middle East?

DARKENING VALLEY: A BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE

ON NUCLEAR WAR

	Aukerman, Dale		Seabury		BOOK
--	----------------	--	---------	--	------

Aukerman's book is unique, timely, and needed. Its approach resembles the method of Karl Barth who advised that we do theology with the Bible in one hand and a newspaper in the other. Well-known and little-known biblical passages come alive in spine-tingling ways as they are related to our nuclear predicament. Through these meditations the Word judges, enlightens, inspires, comforts and converts.
