44 WAYS TO EXPAND THE FINANCIAL BASE OF YOUR CONGREGATION
	Schaller, Lyle E.		Abingdon Press		BOOK
	Contains stewardship ideas and strategies that were tested and proven in scores of local congregations across the U.S. and Canada.
ADVOCACY FUNDING: THE PHILANTHROPY OF CHANGING MINDS
	Procsio, Tony		GrantCraft, 2005		BOOK
	Grant makers tend to be cautious about funding advocacy, and for good reason - yet advocacy can play a crucial role in advancing a foundation's mission. In this guide, contributors explain that advocacy includes a lot of opportunities to improve public policy through work that is well within the limits of the law. Whether your purpose is to advance an idea, argue a position, or enrich the policy debate, the guide offers resources and strategies for planning your work, reaching your audience, assessing impact, and more.
AT EASE: DISCUSSING MONEY AND VALUES IN SMALL GROUPS
	Ronsvalle, John and Sylvia		Alban Institute, 1998		BOOK
	This book covers the general foundations of what makes for good groups while uncovering the hidden secrets of why we won't talk to each other about money. The questions and discussion build from the easy to the more risky but should encourage very interesting and potentially life-changing behavior for participants in the small group.

MORE THAN MONEY
PORTRAITS OF TRANSFORMATIVE STEWARDSHIP
	McNamara, Patrick H.		Alban Institute		BOOK
	A book for those dissatisfied with the current paradigm of stewardship who are willing to be countercultural in their effort to take seriously the biblical mandate of stewardship of the world.
MULTIPLY THE GIFT
	Weems, Ann		UPCUSA		BOOK
	Booklet of stewardship poems, litanies, biblical meditations, skits and orders for services of worship.
OFFERING MEDITATIONS
	Miles, Ray		Chalice Press		PAMPHLET
	These brief meditations are designed to be used as part of an ongoing, year-round stewardship approach that not only increases financial offerings but also allows pastors to use the offertory to inspire, to educate, to motivate, and to challenge worshipers to grow in faith and discipleship.
OFFERINGS OF THE HEART
MONEY AND VALUES IN FAITH COMMUNITIES
	Zevit, Rabbi Shawn Israel		Alban Institute, 2005		BOOK
	In the Jewish perspective, money is a tool for actualizing God's presence in the world. Building on this core value and setting aside the finalcia/spiritual split under which congregational leaders operate, Ragbbit Zevit brings the depth and breadth of Jewish teachings on money and the spiritual life to all faith communities; to help congregations of any faith create values-based approaches to financial and human resources.
PERSONAL STRATEGY: MOBILIZING YOUR SELF
FOR EFFECTIVE GRANT MAKING

SAYING YES / SAYING NO TO APPLICANTS

Ryan, William

GrantCraft, 2004

BOOK

Most grant makers review more proposals than they can recommend for funding. Decision making about what to fund is challenging and so is decision giving to hopeful applicants. How do you say Yes, or No, so that grant applicants understand your foundation's rationale, feel that they've been treated fairly, and can make realistic plans about their next steps? This guide offers observations and suggestions from grant makers and grantees to make this task easier and more meaningful.

SCANNING THE LANDSCAPE: FINDING OUT WHAT'S GOING ON IN YOUR FIELD

Arrick, Ellen

GrantCraft, 2004

BOOK

Grant makers relate their experiences in surveying issues and activities in a field and testing their ideas and observations with experienced practitioners before committing resources. Learn how to get started with a scan, explore its benefits and methods, insure that it gets diverse input, and discover ways it can contribute to the field and inform people of your objectives.
