70 X 7: FORGIVENESS TO THE EXTREME:

THE ROBERT CARRILLO STORY

Vision Video/Gateway Films, distributor

VIDEO

Robert Carrillo was a drug user, a wife abuser, an ex-convict. An encounter with a motorcycle cop could have ended with a ticket but instead it was the start of Carrillo's relationship with Jesus Christ. These are real people--Carrillo, his wife, the cop and his wife, the pastor, and others to whom that California church ministered. It's a story of transformation.

ALONE IN THE DARK

Gateway Films/Vision Video, 1994

VIDEO

A story of teens, drinking and driving. Tasha Grant, 17, goes to a "kegger" and gets drunk. When her boyfriend passes out, Tasha drives and doesn't hear the train approaching.

BELIEVING AND BELONGING

CELEBRATE LIFE PAC CURRICULUM

Metropol, Dottie

Presbyterian Publishing House, 1989

How to set up an effective service-learning program in a congregation, combining the methods of experiential learning with the needs of society. The integration of the experience of service into the classroom increases the relevance of the course content for life in the real world.

BIBLE LESSONS FOR YOUTH: BL4Y

United Methodist Publishing House

CURRICULUM

A 6-Year Bible-to-Life application curriculum for teens in an Easy Step-by-Step Sequence. A complete Bible overview for grades 7 through 12, with adaptable levels for Jr. High and Sr. High teens.

BORED WITH GOD

Dunn, Sean

InterVarsity Press

BOOK

Teenagers are particularly susceptible to apathy-- and apathy is particularly contagious. In this book, Sean Dunn catalogs what he's seen of apathy in his ministry to youth. He offers sympathetic guidance from the Scriptures for keeping apathy from spreading and for shepherding students into spiritual hunger.

BOYS

Gospel Films, Inc.

VIDEO

Classmates called them The Boys. They seemingly had it all-- they were sports stars, had plenty of dates, were officers of their class. But when a Christian comes to school, they ridicule him for his beliefs. The emptiness of their lives becomes tragically apparent with the death of one of The Boys, and finding the ultimately important in life raises their hope.

CRY FOR HELP:

HOW TO HELP A FRIEND WHO IS DEPRESSED OR SUICIDAL

Paraclete Press, 2010

DVD

In the wake of a suicide, family members and friends wonder what they could have done to help, how they could have prevented this tragedy. Made for a teen audience, A Cry for Help educates young people to recognize the signs of depression and suicide in their peers. A Cry for Help prepares young people to listen and care in one of the most challenging situations they might ever face: stopping a friend from taking his or her own life.

DEAR DISTANT DAD

Gateway Films/Vision Video

VIDEO

Teenagers admit, with rare and raw honesty, the devastating hurt they feel inside when they cannot lovingly connect with their dads. The teenagers in this film all have similar problems--their parents thought that things were more important than families. As a result, the teens feel disconnected and lonely.

STOP BULLYING!

STANDING UP FOR YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Paraclete Press, 2010

DVD

Bullying is pervasive in our schools. Over 150,000 students stay home from school each day to avoid harassment from their peers. An estimated 1.6 million young people in grades six through ten are bullied at least once a week. Many young people feel helpless in these situations. They need to know what to do if they are bullied or if they are a witness to bullying. Through expert advice and students' real-life experiences, Stop Bullying! gives students concrete steps they can take to respond to bullying.
